

TASMANIA

Tasmania is an outdoor paradise, making it the spot to go for a coastal hike or to play on the world-class coastal golf courses in the north of the state.

As Australia's island state, Tasmania has an abundance of fresh seafood, eco cruises that get up close to sea cliffs and migrating whales, premium rafting and canyoning experiences, world class fishing and a maritime culture that provides a strong link to the sea and island waterways.

Drive north along the island's eastern coastline and find sandy stretches of beach and the luxurious Saffire Freycinet as well as other aquatic plus food and wine experiences.

SAFFIRE FREYCINET

Two and a half hours drive north of Hobart, Saffire Freycinet has more than amazing views on display. There's world class dining, a multi-award-winning spa, one of the world's top ten beaches to explore and a range of signature experiences available.

Spotlight:

- Meet a Tasmanian devil in Saffire's private enclosure
- Join a Saffire Aboriginal guide on a coastal walk of stories, bush tucker and tradition
- Eat oysters fresh from the sea at Freycinet Marine Farm
- Visit Saffire's exclusive La Prairie day spa

Tasmania Parks and Wildlife

COASTAL TRACKS

Long sections of Tasmania's shoreline are best seen on foot, and for every stretch of coast there's an operator providing an experience where the scenery is matched by the local food, wine and private pieces of coastal luxury.

Spotlight:

- Three Capes Track: a four day trail along the top of Australia's highest sea cliffs
- Maria Island Walk: this island national park has a host of wildlife and ambles among the relics of a former convict station
- Freycinet Experience Walk: walk sections of Freycinet National Park, as well as along the famed Wineglass Bay, staying each night in the walk's private lodge

- Bay of Fires Lodge Walk: wander along empty white-sand beaches and over granite headlands on this remote four day guided walk
- Bruny Island Long Weekend: this four day experience passes through a variety of environments including bush trails and rainforest. Bruny Island is a foodies paradise.
- The South Coast Track: a nine day guided hike through some of Tasmania's pristine wilderness areas, following in the footsteps of early indigenous Australians and ancient seafarers

GREAT EASTERN DRIVE

From St Helens in North East Tasmania to the seaside town of Orford, just north-east of Hobart, Tasmania's Great Eastern Drive stretches for 176 km (109 miles) and has white-sand beaches, distinctive headlands and one of Australia's most famous bays which combines with food and wine to create a memorable experience.
