

TASMANIA

Tasmania is a food lover's nirvana, offering genuine paddock to plate experiences. With a strong tradition of small-scale production and organic farming, along with rich soil, clean water and pure air, Tasmania inspires dedicated growers to produce a truly authentic food and drink experience.

SAFFIRE LODGE, FREYCINET NATIONAL PARK

Freycinet Peninsula is a breathtaking scenic combination of pink granite mountains, white sand beaches, crystal clear water and eucalypt forests, over a 38-kilometre (24 mile) stretch of pristine coastline.

Perched on Tasmania's east coast, overlooking the Hazards Mountains, Freycinet Peninsula and Great Oyster Bay, Saffire Freycinet is a stunning luxury lodge surrounded by breathtaking nature.

SPOTLIGHT:

SAFFIRE FREYCINET

- » Located two and half hours' drive from Hobart or two hours' drive from Launceston
- » Saffire offers chauffeured limousine or 30 minute scenic flight transfers
- » Complimentary activities include: guided walks to the lookout over Wineglass Bay and sailing to nearby islands on the purpose-built vessel, Saffire
- » Guests can don a pair of waders and visit the Freycinet Marine Farm, a working oyster farm where they can sample oyster's fresh from the bay with a glass of champagne in the most beautiful setting
- » Palate restaurant at Saffire is considered one of the most exclusive restaurants in Tasmania, the menu changes daily designed around what is fresh from the paddock or water that day

MONA - MUSEUM OF OLD AND NEW ART, HOBART

MONA, a quirky modern art gallery on the Berridale Peninsula, just 15 kilometres (9.3 miles) from Hobart, combines art with fine produce and wine, with the Moorilla Winery and Moo Brew brewery housed in the grounds of the museum.

SPOTLIGHT:

MONA

- » Stay overnight in the high-tech and luxurious MONA Pavillions
- » Choose from an array of dining choices on site, from French-inspired cuisine at The Source Restaurant, shared plates at Moorilla Wine Bar to casual dining at MONA Café
- » Take a guided behind the scenes tour and tasting of MONA and Moorilla vineyard, Wed-Mon (1.5 hours)
- » Join a guided tasting tour of Moo Brew craft beer Brewery. Alternatively try a flight at the Wine Bar: four samples of the best brews, complete with self-guided tasting notes

BRUNY ISLAND

Located just off the Tasmanian mainland near Hobart, Bruny Island is a treasure trove that boasts some of the state's best scenery, produce and wildlife in one stunning package. The Bruny Island Long Weekend provides all of this and more in an unforgettable three days of invigorating walks, wildlife discoveries, fresh local produce and luxury camping. Delicious gourmet ingredients are collected during the day and transformed by multi-skilled guides into amazing dishes matched with excellent Tassie wines.

CRADLE TO COAST TASTING TRAIL

The Cradle to Coast Tasting Trail is a self-drive journey through Tasmania's north-west. Sample fresh produce, chocolate, cheese, beer, seafood and wine whilst travelling through some of Tasmania's most scenic regions. For itinerary suggestions click here

HIGHLIGHTS:

CRADLE TO COAST TASTING TRAIL

- » The House of Anvers Chocolate Factory and the Spreyton Cider Company near Devonport
- » Taste cheese at Ashgrove Farms and delicious berry products at nearby Christmas Hill Raspberry Farm
- » Visit Three Willows Vineyard and 41 Degrees South Salmon & Ginseng Farm, in the Red Hills area
- » Sample Tasmania's rare and unique Leatherwood honey, sourced from the ancient rainforests of the Tasmanian Wilderness World Heritage Area, in the towns of Chudleigh and Mole Creek, nearby Cradle Mountain
- » Beer lovers should not miss Seven Sheds one of Tassie's smallest breweries with a big reputation in the topiary town of Railton
- » Award-winning whisky at Hellyer's Road Distillery in Burnie

SPOTLIGHT:

BRUNY ISLAND LONG WEEKEND

- » Harvest fresh oysters from the shore and sample wines at Australia's southern-most vineyard
- » Take the award winning Pennicott Wilderness cruise
- » Explore untouched wilderness along breathtaking coastal walks
- » Enjoy a scenic sea-plane flight back to Hobart

MORE FOOD AND WINE EXPERIENCES IN TASMANIA:

- » Hobart's weekly markets: the Farm Gate Markets held on Sundays showcase organic and artisan providores while Hobart's Salamanca markets held every Saturday morning are the biggest outdoor markets in the world

- » Josef Chromy winery in the Tamar Valley wine region, near Launceston, is an award-winning combination of excellent wines, a welcoming cellar door and one of the state's most celebrated restaurants
- » Join a cooking class at sustainable farm, The Agrarian Kitchen, situated in the beautiful Derwent Valley near Hobart. Seasonal classes cover everything from charcuterie, smoking and sourdough to craft beer, preserves and mouth-watering sweets and desserts
- » Taste the nectar of Tasmania along the Tasmanian Whiskey Trail or Tasmanian Cider Trail
- » Enjoy oysters shucked straight from the water, see your guide dive for abalone and haul a crayfish pot, then sit back and relax as your catch is transformed in to a seafood feast, on Pennicott Wilderness Journeys, Seafood Seduction full- day cruise from Hobart

TASMANIA

FOOD & WINE FESTIVAL AND EVENTS CALENDAR

FEBRUARY

Festivale

Taste Tasmanian cool climate wine, including its sophisticated sparkling's and food at Festivale over three days in Launceston's City Park. Expect an emphasis on the wines of the Tamar Valley.

MAY

Savour Tasmania, Hobart

The perfect celebration of local produce, wine, beers and ciders. Enjoy an array of events including the signature Red Wine Weekend featuring a range of master classes and tastings.

DECEMBER

Taste of Tasmania

Held between Christmas and New Year along Hobart's waterfront, the festival features over 70 boutique food, wine, cider and beer stalls and live entertainment, culminating in a New Year's Eve Party.

USEFUL LINKS

Tasmania Food and Wine Itinerary

Saffire Freycinet

Freycinet Marine Farm

MONA

Bruny Island Long Weekend

Cradle to Coast Tasting Trail

Farm Gate Markets

Josef Chromy Winery

The Agrarian Kitchen

Tasmanian Whiskey Trail

Pennicott Wilderness Journeys

Tasmanian Cider Trail

